"History Repeats Itself in the Grandest of Forms"
The 2nd Annual All Black Affair Featuring T-Vice and Harmonik

December 1, 2009 - New York - When something works, why change it? This is the thought resonating from the minds of members at Jaz Enterprise and Young Quality Entertainment, as they reminisce about last year's successful double merger - T-Vice and Harmonik performing for the first time together and a duo of promoters working hand in hand. With two forces on stage and two masters behind the scenes, this formula proved victorious. Therefore, on Saturday, January 16, 2010, Jaz Enterprise and Young Quality Entertainment are elated to bring to New York's Moka Night Club & Lounge, their 2nd Annual All Black Affair starring T-Vice and Harmonik.

Back by popular demand, both bands have had an exceptional year, one that has seen T-Vice bestow upon their fans that musical magic they are best known for, and one that has also allowed us to see Harmonik grow into a great contender in the Haitian music scene. With the recent release of their first live album, "Kapote," following their debut album, "Jere'm," Harmonik has garnered a heap of followers and has been invited to major events throughout the U.S., the Antilles and Haiti. T-Vice, on the other hand, are veterans with more than a decade of hits in their dossier and have kept music lovers enamored year after year with New York being home to some of their most hard core fans.

Jaz Enterprise's reputation supersedes them since their establishment in 1995, when they hit the Caribbean-American music and entertainment scene with a certain pizzazz that has continued to keep their clients loyal. Young Quality Entertainment, though in its freshman stage, has proven themselves by keeping true to their name, "Quality" entertainment. Together their promotional and marketing campaigns have excited fans to have the industry marked by professionalism, reliability and of course respect for not only their patrons, but for the musicians they hand pick to work with as well.

Newly renovated, Moka Night Club & Lounge in Queens, New York is the best backdrop to start the year and celebrate with one of Haiti's most popular bands T-Vice and a fastly approaching success story, Harmonik. On Saturday, January 16, 2010 history will repeat itself, and the bass throbbing, powerful beats and enthralling pulses from New York's very own DJ Stakz will also speak volumes during this cannot miss, class act event.

Though admission is $30 in advance and $40 at the door, group discounts are readily available and can be found by visiting www.jazenterprise.com, e-mailing jazenterpriseinfo@gmail.com or by calling 347-203-2020 and 347-558-1091 for any other detailed information. For the latest event updates, follow Jaz Enterprise and Young Quality Entertainment on Facebook, MySpace and Twitter.

Everyone who has missed a Jaz Enterprise and Young Quality Entertainment party has been stranded by regret, therefore let your heart not be heavy and join the massive population at Moka Night Club & Lounge on Saturday, January 16, 2010 for the ultimate party - The 2nd Annual All Black Affair.

About Young Quality Entertainment

Founded in 2008, Young Quality Entertainment started with two high school friends who wanted to bring a different spin to the average Haitian parties/events. In a very short period of time, Young Quality's events have received rave reviews based on their promotions, meeting party goers' expectations, and excellent services. Although they aim toward the younger generation, Young Quality has been able to satisfy all age groups with their quality of work. Young Quality's mission is to promote Haitian music to the world.
