"Jaz Enterprise's Sixth Annual La Nuit Des Jeunes Concert Set To Brighten Manhattan's City Lights On March 26, 2011"

CaRiMi - Harmonik - T-Vice - Black Dada - Nelson Freitas - DJ Stakz
Hi Profyle - DJ Mister Cee and many more surprises!

February 1, 2011 - Manhattan, New York - Jaz Enterprise is proud to present the Sixth Annual La Nuit Des Jeunes on Saturday, March 26, 2011. Scheduled to be held at the prestigious Roseland Ballroom in the heart of Manhattan, La Nuit Des Jeunes has solidified its status as a leading New York City concert engagement, drawing nearly 4,000 music fans each year by showcasing emerging artists, as well as prolific veterans of new generation Haitian music.

New York locals CaRiMi have become an international sensation and will grace the stage of La Nuit Des Jeunes with a stellar performance that always leaves fans awestruck. Sophomores Harmonik have earned their spot at the event by their vitality and enthusiasm to please music lovers from around the country who assemble at La Nuit Des Jeunes. Miami's own T-Vice will return for the sixth edition of La Nuit Des Jeunes and will undoubtedly raise the standards as one of the crowd's favorites. This year, special guest Black Dada, who is best known for his hit song, "Imma Zoe," will include a touch of Hip Hop to the mix, while Zouk sensation, Nelson Freitas will add to the night's diversity with his blend of Cape Verdean Kriol and English with a twist of R&B typically found in many of his chart toppers like "Rebound Chic."

In addition to the anticipation for the all-star bands and solo artists, the DJ performances will add to the evening's stimulating vibe with New York's DJ Stakz Hi-Profyle, crowned the "Haitian King of New York," and DJ Mister Cee of Hot 97, whose popular "Throwback at Noon," keeps Hip-Hop and R&B alive with an extensive repertoire of classics and old-time favorites that have earned him the nickname, "The Finisher." Guest host Kako Bourjolly, who is known for his comedic frolics and therapeutic antics, will step onto the stage directly from Haiti as the Master of Ceremony for this not-to-be-missed occasion.

"We are always excited about the possibilities of La Nuit Des Jeunes becoming bigger and better with each edition," says Evens Blaise of Jaz Enterprise. "We strive to add special touches to make every year that more memorable for each guest and in our sixth year we are eager to bring more diversity than ever before."

In an effort to continuously support new and upcoming talent in the Haitian Music Industry (HMI), Jaz Enterprise is proud to also showcase Fabrice Fombrum, an artist who was named the first-ever "Next HMI Star of 2011." Guest band Rafrechi from Washington D.C. will also perform and promises to entertain La Nuit Des Jeunes fans with a memorable show.
